

AXIOM BUSINESS BOOK AWARDS GUIDELINES

The 2019 Axiom Business Book Awards, now accepting entries in 22 business categories, are designed to honor the year's best business books and their authors and publishers. The twelfth annual Axiom Business Book Awards program entry period opens in March and runs through January 12, 2019. Books with 2017-2019 copyrights or with release dates between March 2017 and January 2019 are eligible. The contest is presented by Jenkins Group, a Michigan-based book publishing and marketing services company that has operated the popular Independent Publisher Book Awards contest since 1996.

The Axiom Business Book Awards are intended to bring increased recognition to exemplary business books and their creators, with the understanding that business people are a very well-read and informed segment of the population, eager to learn about great new books that will inspire and inform them, and help them improve their careers and businesses.

The Axiom Awards recognize books in a wide range of categories, from Leadership to International Business. The list of categories includes books intended for professionals (Business Ethics); for general consumers (Personal Finance); books about business people (Memoir/Biography); and books meant to motivate and entertain (Business Fable).

In order to encourage participation and early entries, the contest kicks off with an economical early-bird entry fee of just $75 per title, good until June 30, 2018.

"We think business books are a very exciting part of publishing today, critical to helping businesses and individuals get our economy back on track," says company founder Jerrold Jenkins. "Because business people are always looking for new ideas and solutions to their problems, business book authors and publishers fill a niche by creating informative and innovative books."

"Today's well-informed business leaders keep up on trends and ground-breaking ideas through reading, and our Axiom Awards will bring a very valuable list of winning book titles to readers looking for cutting-edge ideas and advice," says Jenkins. "These awards are meant to bring great books and great business people together."

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

WHO ENTERS THE AXIOM AWARDS?

All publishers are eligible, ranging from large multi-title publishing houses to small one-title publishers. The contest is open to publishers throughout North America and overseas publishers who publish English-language books intended for the American market. Print-On-Demand and other independent authors are welcome to enter their books themselves.

ARE AWARDS PROGRAMS WORTH THE MONEY AND EFFORT?

Entering your titles in an awards program does take time, money, and effort, but the potential payoffs include wider exposure and credibility that lead to increased book sales, plus the added value of personal satisfaction and prestige. Awards are a great morale boost for all those involved, and they influence reviewers and buyers. The gold seal prominently placed on the book cover often captures the buyer's attention and leads to higher sales. Many of the winners in our Independent Publisher Book Awards contest continually reorder stickers for their new print runs, and those shiny seals on the cover help the books to keep on selling.

WHAT SETS THE AXIOM AWARDS APART?

The Axiom Awards are 100% dedicated to identifying the best business books published each year for the North American market. The Axiom Awards are the only U.S.-based award contest focused solely on business books. Gold, silver and bronze medal-winners appear for an entire year at www.AxiomAwards.com. Winners will also be featured in www.IndependentPublisher.com and highlighted prominently in our monthly newsletter, which goes out to more than 20,000 subscribers worldwide, many of whom are agents, buyers, and librarians.
