About the Axiom Business Book Awards

Since 2007, the Axiom Business Book Awards have honored the best business titles in more than 25 categories, shining a light on books that provide actionable insights, strategic guidance, and innovative perspectives for professionals at all levels. From leadership and management to entrepreneurship and personal finance, these awards recognize books that make a meaningful impact on the business world.

A panel of esteemed judges—including business executives, educators, and publishing professionals—carefully evaluates each entry for content, design, and creativity. By selecting 3–6 medalists per category, the awards ensure that influential voices in business publishing receive the recognition they deserve.
